

Cannon Chapel

Cannon Chapel was designed by internationally acclaimed architect Paul Rudolph and features furniture designed by him.

President Jimmy Carter broke ground for Cannon Chapel in 1979.

It was officially consecrated on September 30, 1981.

Cannon has hosted His Holiness the Dalai Lama, Arch Bishop Desmond Tutu, President Bill Clinton, and numerous acclaimed religious and academic figures and renowned performing artists.

Cannon Chapel

Regular Hours of Operation

Monday - Thursday

7 AM - 9 PM

Friday

7 AM - 7 PM

Saturday

Open for Events

As Scheduled

Sunday

8am-9pm

Cannon Chapel

Weekly Services

Protestant Worship, Catholic Mass,
Hindu Aarthi, Jumma Prayers, and Meditation.

Contact Us

Cannon Chapel Office

PH: 404-727-6325 religiouslife.emory.edu

EMORY

Dean of the Chapel and Office of Spiritual and Religious Life

Cannon Chapel

The Spiritual Heart of Emory University

Religious Observance

Educational Programming

Artistic Expression

Community Building

Cannon Chapel Sanctuary

The Sanctuary is available for religious, academic, and artistic events. Max capacity: 400

Brooks Commons

Brooks Commons is reserved for lectures, meals, conferences, artistic events, and community gatherings. Seats 50-100, standing reception: 200.

Formal Lounge

The Formal Lounge is reserved for faculty/staff events only. Seats 12-15.

Security, Staging, and Care

All related service needs (furniture, set up, security, custodial, etc.) must be communicated to and scheduled by the Chapel Coordinator. The coordinator will schedule these services. Non-compliance will result in a service fee.

Audio/Visual

Audio, visual, and other media services are available upon request and may require a fee. Audio and visual equipment may be operated by approved personnel. Equipment and chapel furniture may only be moved as scheduled through the Chapel Coordinator.

Parking and Accessibility

Parking is available at Oxford Road, Peavine, and Fishburne parking decks. For more information, including information about special accessibility, is found at transportation.emory.edu

Reservations

Cannon Chapel spaces are available for use by Emory-affiliated groups.

Make a request at:

www.tinyurl.com/cannon-space

Questions?

Call 404-727-6325

Wedding, Bar/Bat Mitzvahs and Other Special Events

See Cannon Chapel Wedding Brochure for special event information.